BIOGRAPHY

Carl Honoré is the voice of the Slow Movement. His bestselling books on the power of slowness have been published in 35 languages. His two main-stage TED Talk have racked up million of views.

Carl's message is simple, counterintuitive and game-changing: to thrive in a fast world, you have to slow down.

Whether online or in-person, Carl's keynotes and workshops are dynamic, inspiring, informative and full of humour. His audiences range from business leaders, entrepreneurs and sales professionals to engineers, lawyers and medical practitioners.

His first book, In Praise of Slow, chronicles the global trend toward putting on the brakes in everything from work to food to parenting. The Financial Times said it is “to the Slow Movement what Das Kapital is to communism.”

Carl’s third book, The Slow Fix, explores how to tackle complex problems in every walk of life, from health and relationships to business and politics, without falling for superficial, short-term quick fixes.

Carl fronted a series for BBC Radio 4 called The Slow Coach in which he helped frazzled, over-scheduled people slow down. He also presented a television show called Frantic Family Rescue on Australia’s ABC 1.

While researching In Praise of Slow, Carl was slapped with a speeding ticket.

(NB: Carl can present in English, Spanish, French and Portuguese.)

KEYNOTE TOPIC

The Slow Revolution

To thrive in a fast world, you have to slow down. Doing so will boost your health and bring more depth, pleasure and meaning to your life. It will also make you more efficient, creative, accurate and productive. As The Economist recently advised: “Forget frantic acceleration. Mastering the clock of business is about choosing when to be fast and when to be slow.” Using stories and case-studies from around the world, Carl shows how to work, play and live better by unleashing your inner tortoise.

TESTIMONIALS

"Online keynotes can be tough, but Carl's story, anecdotes and personality held our audience of business owners on the other side of the world captive for a full 90-minutes, and they wanted more. A world-class keynote presenter with a message everybody in the world with a pulse needs to hear. Book Carl for your next online event, it's a guaranteed win." James Veigli, Founder of Broker Profits Vault (Melbourne, Australia)

"Carl put on an amazing show! The whole audience was energised by his insightful and fun presentation. He was fantastic! We got amazing comments! A huge, huge thanks!" Beatrice Imbert-Forgeot, Richmond Group (Paris, France)

"An amazing public speaker that engages the audience from the first to the last minute. He is a pleasure to work with...no prima donna in sight!!!! Great job!" — Greg Swan, Canadian Society of Safety Engineering (Montreal, Canada)

"I was super excited when I was listening to Carl speaking in front of our audience — imagine a hall with 400 people and they are all laughing, nodding their heads, smiling — when you can really see that they are enjoying themselves and listening to the speaker on stage. That is what we had with Carl and I can assure you that he will take your advice into consideration and make the best event possible. Really recommend him as a speaker!" Nika Močnik, CEO Eventnika (Ljubljana, Slovenia)

"Carl was captivating! He has a blend of polished eloquence and sophistication coupled with vibrant and a rare contagious energy that attendees absolutely fell in love with. Carl captured everyone's attention from the very first second and had us smiling, laughing and nodding in agreement throughout. His appeal is universal and he was the audience favourite!” Sam Makhoul, Founder of Higher Branch Success Academy (Sydney, Australia)

“Carl’s presentation was a hit, delivering a fresh perspective to our latest conference that tackled speed in business. Carl’s insights and passion managed to inspire so many C-level executives that going slower at times pays more and as a result it helps us improve and possibly find ways of doing things smarter and faster. I highly recommend Carl as he is a very good public speaker and able to adapt his ‘Slow Movement’ to so many different contexts.” Morgan Parnis, Business Leaders Malta

“I could listen to Carl speak all day! Very dynamic, funny, insightful and engaging. I thought he and his subject matter was the perfect way to end the conference.”

Delegate at the annual conference of the Canadian Society of Safety Engineers (Montreal, Canada)

“Many thanks for a superb, insightful, dynamic, fun and fully inspiring presentation! Just had excellent feedback from all participants with no exception!”

Gilles Legault, Canadian National Railway Company (Montreal, Canada)

“The excellent Carl Honoré closed the first edition of WELLNESS986 generating a great success and becoming the highest rated speaker! His fast talk about Slow hit the spot and provided excellent insight on how putting on the brakes could help us have more productive and more enjoyable lives.” Tania Gonzalez, WELLNESS16 (London, UK)

“Getting city lawyers to slow down is impossible surely? Carl was faced with this task at our latest Life With Law event, and succeeded in every way. Carl captured the whole room's attention with his thoughts on The Slow Movement. His talk resonated with everyone in slightly different ways, but we all left wanting to find our inner tortoise.” Amy Greenham, Lawyers on Demand (London, UK)

“Mr. Honoré spoke at the conference we annually host at the University of Cologne in Germany – the World Business Dialogue. His speech and participation in the panel discussion “Happiness in a modern world” vastly enriched and inspired us and the entire audience. We thank Mr. Honoré for contributing to our event in such a great way and would love to welcome him anytime at our events in the future!” Robert Bouschery, World Business Dialogue (Cologne, Germany)

“Mr. Honore’s witty presentation was intellectually stimulating, highly entertaining, and forced us all to look at how we think about the invisible force that rules our lives: time. Encompassing world history, sociological observation, and journalist's eye for accurate detail, his talk was the unquestioned highlight of our conference this year." Russell Willis Taylor, National Arts Strategies (New York City)

“Carl Honoré was the principal keynote speaker at the World Leisure Congress in Chuncheon, South Korea. His contribution to several hundred practitioners, academics and politicians drawn from the fields of tourism, recreation, sport and the arts was outstanding. With engaging humour and a range of apposite anecdotes on human foibles and behaviour, recognised so easily by an international audience, he compared and contrasted the external pressures on individuals to react and succeed with a more relaxed lifestyle choice. In contributing to the plenary session, leading a separate workshop and mixing freely with the delegates, Carl was accessible and responsive to debate and discussion during the Congress, especially engaging delegates with encouragement. One mark of the success of a keynote speaker is reference back to the original speech at various points in the Congress; on this criterion alone Carl's could only be an overwhelming success." Dr Derek Casey, World Leisure Organization (Chuncheon, South Korea)
